Rewarding the Widow.

(Louisville Times.)
A handsome tribute to a conductor's widow was paid by the L. & N. railroad this morning.

On September 11, Conductor Jas.
Lemon, in the faithful discharge of his duty, was shot by a desperado named William T. Brame in the northern part of Tennessee. In October, the directors of the L. & N. met here, and during the session, resolutions of respect for the bravery and faithful conduct of Conductor Lemon were passed. This morning, Assistant General Manager William A.
Kelland, received at the General Manager's office, twenty shares of the Louisville and Nashville railroad stock from the directors of the road.
Included with the shares was a handsome memorial bound in black morocco leather and richly engrossed, coming from President Estlin Norton. The shares and memorial were sent on this morning to the widow, who is on her way to her home at Nashville, and will be presented to her on the train this evening by one of the conductors who trained with her husband.

The shares, which are now valued at over $2,000, were bought with the individual contributions from the following directors:

New York—William Muttons, J.
D. Probst, Edmund H. Smith, J. B.
Toman, August Belmont, Jr., J. S.
Rogers, Estlin Norton, President, A.
Marcus, J. A. Horsey, Jacob Schild and Thomas Hutter.

Louisville—J. D. Taggart, John A.
Carter and M. H. Smith.

DO NOT SUFFER LONGER.
Knowing that a cough can be checked in a day, and the first stages of consumption broken in a week, we hereby guarantee Dr. Acker's English Cough Remedy, and will refund the money to all who buy, take it as per directions, and do not find our statement correct.

THAT TERRIBLE COUGH.
In the morning, hurried or diffi-night, all or any of these things are the first stages of consumption.

There are but three classes of men in every community, the retrograde, the stationary, and the progressive.
The first two have little or no regard for the newspaper and its influence and read it simply to see "what is going on," but who could tell their arms and see it die with the utmost complacency, leaving the progressive class the only real sufferers. The retrograde and stationary class of every community are generally the critics of the newspapers, and, as Steele says: "Of all mortals a critic is the aliest; for by injuring himself to examine everything, whether of consequence or not, he never looks upon anything but with a design of passing sentence upon it."—Press and Printer.

The Christmas tree is of German origin, and did we know that nation thanks for nothing else the introduction of their beautiful Christmas custom entitles them to the gratitude of every American. Holly and misletoe are well enough in their way, but neither can draw the home circle so closely around it as the evergreen tree.

THE FIRST SYMPTOMS OF DEATH.
Tired feeling, dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores, are all positive evidence of poisoned blood. No matter how it became poisoned it must be purified to avoid death. Dr. Acker's English Blood Purifier has never failed to remove scarcely or syphilitic poisons. Spill under a positive guarantee.
